TIDBITS FOR THOUGHT

UNWAVERING FAITH

Luke 1:38 “I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered, “May it be to me as you have said.” Then the angel left her.”

Throughout the pages of Scripture, we are witness to individuals living, breathing and acting with an unwavering faith in God as they follow His directions, no matter how impossible or unlikely they might seem. In the beginning of the encounter with God, each individual reacts with various normal human responses of, “Why me?” ... “You have to kidding!” ....” “How do I do that?” ... “Are you sure?” ...” “Why me? “Can’t you get someone else?” ....” and other questions that speak of hesitation and doubt. But after a period of thought and prayer, they all eventually did what God directed. Each and every one of these individuals acted on a solid, dedicated and unwavering faith in the goodness and love of God. And each one stands as a testament to you and me and the entire world what solid, unwavering faith looks like in action.

The Hebrew writer uses two words to describe faith.... “sure” and “certain.” (Hebrews 11:1-3) Both of those words need a secure beginning and ending point. The beginning point is believing in God’s character..... He is who He says. The end point is believing in God’s promises..... He will do what He says.

So, when we say that we have faith, we are saying, among many others, that we are certain that God is good.... God is love...God has my best interests at the core of His heart.

When we say that we have faith, we are saying that the promises of God are written on our heart and that we know without a shadow of a doubt that He will stand by those promises.

If we have the faith to truly believe, without any reservations, that Christ is making us more like Himself, that has to be the greatest “Good News” that the human mind can imagine. That thought also means that when we are bearing the image of Christ before the world, our every word.... our every deed.... our very life must be congruent with that image.

We have to ask ourselves: Does my heart go out to each person I meet with love? Do I or can I forgive the unforgiveable? Am I willing to extend mercy to each individual as I meet him or her? Can I or do I extend grace in every situation? Do my words reflect my inner Christ at all times? Do I cry out at injustice? Do I hurt when some of His children are hungry or oppressed? Do I share in His joy when another lost one comes home? Does my heart break when I see so many who are separated from Him, for whatever reason? Do I have complete and total faith that my trust in Jesus, through bad times and good times, is where my destiny lies?

Some unknown author echoes that thought when he writes: “God is the reason that, even in pain, I smile.... even in confusion, I understand.... even in betrayal, I trust.... even in fear, I continue to fight.”

Think about it!
